BOOK SYNOPSIS

In the cold and damp of a British winter, young Charlotte is fascinated by the orange, which she holds in her hands. She wonders about the sunshine lands, which are warm enough to ripen oranges. A delightful contemporary novel built on a dream as young Charlotte falls asleep and dreams of those sunshine lands where oranges ripen in winter. Her dreams take her into the future; with her friend Daisy, she finds herself in Portugal where a handsome Portuguese stranger captures her heart. After the escapades in the hills near Obidos with Daisy, Charlotte's dreams take her into Andalucía, to the winter sun of southern Spain. Detailed descriptions of the Estremadura region of Portugal and the interior of Andalucía which bring to life the sights and sounds of the Iberian Peninsula as Charlotte and Daisy live life to the full. Does Charlotte find oranges? Who is the handsome Portuguese Senhor? Are they really dreams? Or reality? Rosalie Marsh titles are available worldwide in both print and e-book formats for most readers. <http://www.christalpublishing.com>
